

ANDERLECH

Salvation through suffering

1. We are delivered from sin and misery through suffering. We may therefore be thankful for suffering by learning to apply it.
2. Apparently man needs that, so we can surprise ourselves about how great the suffering is, but man needs it to break free.
3. So we are not here to live up to the ego. Then we miss our goal. Nowadays everything is modernized to serve the ego. Everything is camouflaged for this, and man no longer knows the prophetic. And they all contradict each other.
4. It is ego against ego, and they are whipping each other up. These are dark spirits who enjoy blood, enjoy chaos, because it is their lucrative business.
5. It happens where people put the prophetic on a second project. The ego is on the first project. This ego does not want to see the suffering, but pushes the suffering away, and the flesh is afraid of the suffering. They do not devote themselves to the suffering in order to receive the Word in it. No, the ego sits on the throne, not the Word.
6. They have become slaves to the earthly media, programmers, to build the kingdom of evil.
7. You can't depend on them because every day is different. Every day they have something new, and every time they say they were wrong, and make excuses, and then happily continue on as before.
8. Man follows worldliness instead of being trained in the sober prophetic life.
9. They have a need to be stimulated with carnality. They want sensation, entertainment. There is something for everyone whatever they want.
10. One does not want to bear suffering, and does not want to walk the path of salvation. Everything must be noisy and chaotic, driven by the winds of the lower earthly.
11. They despise the prophetic. It costs them too much patience. Here everything is within reach. It provides no depth. They take away each other's spiritual life.
12. The cost is high, and so man becomes a gold-digger. What does it profit you if you have gained the world and all the knowledge of the earth, but have lost your soul?
13. So there are rules adhered to this. Man cannot do it by himself, and then the Word comes.

14. Today man is totally disconnected from the Word, because the Word may have been misrepresented by others.
15. Today man is wounded and paranoid. But if there is counterfeit money in circulation, there is also real money.
16. The Word is the womb of the higher nature.
17. People think they do not need the Word. They are addicted to gossip, to lower earthly spirits that also cling to people. They are pester spirits and addicted spirits.
18. Man has chosen these spirits above the Word, and therefore man must live with them.
19. Half-truths do not make the whole true. Evil loves to use the bait of half-truths, and those who are not cautious and sober fall for them.

A false creation

20. Because they have made their own gods, they no longer want to know anything about the Word.
21. They have gathered together prophets to please them, so they will not listen to the prophets of heaven.
22. The message of the heavenly, raptured prophets is not popular, because it costs them too much, namely their lives, and they want to keep that.
23. The eternal knowledge has emanated like a waterfall, falling down upon the rock, and so there have been false creations, and there are false creators and creatoresses walking around.
24. So you are partly a false creation here on earth made by a false creator. That is to say, consciousness is partly false, and the way you experience things, how you are, and so on.
25. One focuses blindly on words, not on meanings, and thus the mind is veiled.
26. So there have been many false creations in these things, so therefore there is the clerical warfare.

Everything is revelation

27. Man's ego cannot bring man to perfection.
28. So there is a missing link. So make sure you have all the links, including the missing links.

29. They have created their own mediators, but it does not go deep enough. They are not trained.

30. It must be tested, and something of the person himself, or lived through. To be redeemed by someone else is therefore only symbolic, not literal, and is therefore about the missing link in the person himself.

31. It is a language that only a few understand, because it takes effort and practice to learn to understand and speak it.

32. Therefore, the missing link should not be sought in people, but in the Word, where the true man is who has experienced everything.

33. The nature woman is therefore important in protecting against falsely literalized, one-sided projection.

34. One must be an only-begotten son, that is, be separated, not hiding behind brothers, but having a personal relationship with the heavenly mother in solitariness.

35. The Word calls man to return to the heavenly breast, to remain safe from the predators.

36. It is mainly about restoring the view of it. That is why it is important that the way is preached in this time, otherwise there is no hope for humanity.

37. The flesh loves to show off, to impose rules on others, and to throw into prison anyone who does not worship these rules greatly.

38. The flesh had begun a hunt for the child. That was what it wanted, to rob it from man.

39. In principle, they have only managed to steal and destroy a drop of the ocean, and it will soon come upon them. The heavenly wilderness is only growing larger.

40. That is a great mystery. Man either cannot tolerate the truth, or he distorts the truth to suit his own convenience.

41. People are at each other's throats, and fight over who may have the honor and the prestige. They fight over every piece of bread, and over the showpiece.

42. Man must only detach himself from these reflections. But that cannot be done in his own strength. Only by dying to come to rebirth. Everything to the heavenly mother.

43. Thus rebirth, not by the powers of the self-crowning flesh. Thus dying off.

44. It didn't happen to you, but it was revealed to you, when you think about traumatic things in the past.

45. Nothing happens to you, but everything is revelation. For it was already there, and you had to experience it. Someone was there before you, and then you came, and saw the same. It came to the surface, that which was already there.

46. They pretend that it is real, that it is all true, that they are reliable witnesses with trustworthy testimonies.

47. When we talk about evil, we are talking about something cunning, not something that you can talk down philosophically, or talk away. There is much more to it.

48. The Fall was an awakening and revelation about what man still had to do.

49. Man has not accepted the Word. Man is now enclosed and still man does not repent. Still man does not want to see the path that leads back.

50. They are haters of the sober nature. If people around you try to build your world, then you have to build your own world, and that world is already given. Build on the Word.

51. Man has come under judgment.

That is not to say that there is no hope for mankind. If man is unfaithful, the Word is still faithful.

52. We may say that it is set as an example to be followed, and that man is caught up in it, like a fish entangled in heavenly nets.

53. Man must go to the heavenly womb, to be freed from false power and false rest, in re-education.

54. Man does not need a greater power, but a deeper womb.

55. The fruit of hunger is suffering, and sleep, so that through deep sleep one may come to the deeper world.
